

LECTURER POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT
University of California, Davis

The Program in Art History and the Program in Medieval and Early Modern Studies at the University of California, Davis, invite applications for a visiting lecturer position for academic year 2008-09. We seek a scholar with research and teaching expertise in one or more of the following areas: medieval art history; medieval and early-modern architectural history; medieval and early-modern visual and material culture. Preference will be given to a candidate with an interest in the interchange between Europe and other regions. The position will involve teaching survey courses and more focused thematic courses at the introductory and advanced levels. Teaching load is four courses spread across two or three quarters. Please send a letter of application, a c.v., two sample syllabi, a writing sample, and three letters of reference to Simon Sadler, Director, Program in Art History, University of California, One Shields Avenue, Davis, CA 95616. Review of applications will begin May 19, 2008 and will continue until the position is filled.

For more information on the Programs in Art History and Medieval and Early Modern Studies, please see our websites:
<http://arthistory.ucdavis.edu>; <http://mems.ucdavis.edu>

The University of California, Davis, is an equal-opportunity employer.

Proof of citizenship or eligibility for US employment required prior to employment (Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986).

This position is subject to UC policy and is covered by a collective bargaining unit.